PARISH LITURGICAL EVENING OF PRAYER

All St John Vianney ushers, lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, and music people are invited to our annual get-together in the church on Monday, October 22nd at 7:00 PM. "Our theme this year is taken from Psalm 100, "O be joyful in the Lord, serve the Lord with gladness." Fr. Marchand will lead the evening of prayer, encouraging all our liturgical ministers to reflect on how their ministries can lead others to a spirit of joy and rest in the Lord. There will be an opportunity for each ministry to discuss among themselves the past year and the fruits of their work. The evening will conclude with a celebration of Evening Prayer, or Vespers, the Church's traditional prayer at the end of the day.

ATTENTION ALL PARISHIONERS

For more than a year, two of our parishioners, Patrick Leduc and Josh McDonald, have been participating in the Diocesan Lay Ministry training program. Spiritually developing and educating lay people to be more equipped to serve the people of God, this Diocesan program requires all participants to do a project in their home parish. Below are the projects that Patrick and Josh have planned. I ask all of you to consider attending one or both of these projects. Your support and participation will help them expand their ministry skills and complete the requirements.

“PRESENT AT MASS”

You're invited to join a, twice monthly, small group conversation at St John Vianney that explores how we can deepen and sustain our presence at Mass. Come join others in exploring powerful moments of Grace as well as struggles to be fully present at Mass - where we will all learn from each other. Meetings will be on the first and third Sundays at 1:00 PM in the Parish Hall. See Patrick Leduc for more information:
pleducvt@gmail.com or 598-4246.

“SEVEN THEMES OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING”

Often called "the Church's best kept secret," Catholic Social Teaching is what guides us in Christian life, and helps us truly be a light to the world. The US Catholic Bishops have defined seven key themes, which we will look at over the course of this new monthly series. We will look at how these teachings influenced our saints and other great figures throughout history, how they foster a closer relationship with God and neighbor, and how we might apply them in our own lives today. We'll meet in the St John Vianney church basement each first Tuesday at 7 PM. For more information:
josh-mcdonald@comcast.net or 857-8814.

The new local Catholic Radio Station, WRXJ 105.5 FM, Our Lady of Perpetual Help radio can now be heard! Months ago many of you contributed money and said prayers for this station to become a reality. Please tune your car and home radios to 105.5 FM!
